Beaded Chain

FFR-DSI's Beaded Chain makes it easy to add valuable product information at the shelf's edge, on displays, and almost anywhere in store. Simple, snap-together loop holds color chips, vinyl pouches, promotional signage, product selection guides and more.

Features and Benefits

- Ideal for adding product information like selection guides, color chips and promotional signage almost anywhere in store.
- Also works well as a strong, inexpensive hanging solution for ceiling and window banners.
- Beaded chain snaps together for a secure fit.
- Available in two styles – connector and coupling – and a variety of lengths to suit any in-store need.
- Connector style provided a solid attachment with a fixed length chain.
- Coupling style allows you to adjust chain to any length.
- Nickel construction won't rust, for a durable solution that can be reused for easy product information updates.
